REPORT FROM THE CHAIR

Australia’s winter sport athletes continued to showcase their talent throughout the 2017-18 season, culminating at the PyeongChang Olympic Winter Games (OWG) in February 2018.

PyeongChang 2018 saw Australia represented by a team of 51 athletes; 28 men and 23 women, across 12 disciplines, with Ski, Halfpipe and Ski Snowboard Slopestyle featuring in their second Olympic program.

With 20 first time Olympians and more finalists than ever before, Australia’s haul of seven top-six performances display a depth of elite results not seen before. Australia won a total of three medals in Korea, matching the number of medals previously won at Sochi and Vancouver. For the first time, in Mogul Skier Matthew Graham, Snowboard Cross athlete Jarryd Hughes, and Snowboard Halfpipe athlete Scott James, Australia had three new medal winners at one Games. Our medallists were aged 22, 23 and 23 – and we can expect all to be back in Beijing in 2022. The overall results demonstrate the program success we are having in Mogul Skiing, Snowboard Cross and Snowboard Halfpipe.

Dual Olympian, Matthew Graham significantly improved on his seventh place in the men’s Mogul Skiing at Sochi 2014 with a silver medal in PyeongChang. Only beaten by the greatest Mogul Skier of all time in Mikael Kingsbury, Graham saved his best run for last scoring 82.57. Along with Graham’s silver, 19-year-old Jakara Anthony, finished 4th in the women’s Mogul Skiing and Britt Cox 5th. Australia had three athletes in the top-six in men’s and women’s Mogul Skiing and had a 14th and a 20th placing, making it a highly successful Moguls’ group with much promise for the future.

Two-time Olympian Jarryd Hughes won silver in the men’s Snowboard Cross final at Phoenix Park and was awarded the honour of carrying the Australian flag at the Closing Ceremony. The 22-year-old finished just behind Sochi 2014 gold medallist and current World Champion Pierre Vaultier (France). Australia’s Snowboard Cross athletes performed superbly with three men in one semi-final and two in the final. A result of 2nd, 6th (Alex Pullin) and 10th (Cameron Bolton), illustrates the depth and quality of this program.

2017 Snowboard Halfpipe World Champion Scott James carried the Australian flag in the Opening Ceremony. The 23-year-old went on to win bronze at his third Games. Snowboard Half Pipe produced two top-10 results including the medal for Scott James and a 10th placing for Kent Callister. Emily Arthur was the best placed Australian Snowboard Halfpipe female when the 18-year-old finished 11th in her OWG debut.
Laura Peel was top five in women's Aerial Skiing and Samantha Kennedy Sim's eighth was a strong result for the Ski Cross team. Greta Small had her best Downhill result and Cross Country had best ever results including a 12th place in the team's event. Our Short and Long Track Speed Skating racers gave their all and kept the dream of Olympic representation alive for their sports and Australia's Sliding Sports – Luge, Skeleton and BobSleigh improved on previous results. With inspirational performances from the Australian figure skaters, Kailani Craine, Brendan Kerry, Harley Windsor and Ekaterina Alexandrovskaya, Harley created history by becoming our first indigenous Winter Olympian.

Aerial Skier, Lydia Lassila is acknowledged for her outstanding career. Lydia entered the Australian History Books following the PyeongChang 2018 OWG as she became the first female winter athlete to compete at five Games.

The mother of two is also Australia's most decorated female skier (a title shared with Alisa Camplin - Warner), having won Vancouver Olympic gold. Lydia was also the first woman to ever perform the stunning quadruple twisting triple somersault on snow, a performance that secured her a bronze medal in Sochi. Hers will be an enduring legacy.

At the conclusion of the 2018 Olympic Winter Games, a series of strategic reviews of each of the OWIA operated sport programs was led by CEO, Geoff Lipshut. As an outcome of this review period, coaches and support staff have been secured and programs have been refined for the future.

International Water Jump Ramp

The OWIA continues to pursue a never give up approach for this vital project which is now in its 8th dedicated year! In the 2016 – 2017 Chairman's Report, I conveyed that after four years of serious negotiation and following the pressure from a small group who vigorously opposed the Lennox Head project, the Sports Minister, the Hon. Stuart Ayres MP cancelled the project with a view of identifying another suitable site for the facility in North East NSW. The NSW Office of Sport then entered into discussion with Southern Cross University at Lismore and Lismore Council but unfortunately, an International Water Jump (IWJR) project at this location did not transpire.

The Minister and NSW Goverment have been very supportive and have been great partners in the effort to have this facility in NSW.

More recently, considerable progress has been made regarding the re-establishment of the Sleeman Centre in Queensland for our IWJR.

Olympic Training Centre

Early in 2018, the Olympic Training Centre (OTC) was established at Mt Buller as a partnership between the OWIA, the Mt Buller and Mt Stirling Alpine Resort Management Board, Buller Ski Lifts and Ski & Snowboard Australia. It comprises excellent training and ancillary facilities including; an upgraded Aerial and Mogul facility (Chamois Run and Lydia's Lift), indoor acrobatic facility, strength and conditioning facility, and Alpine House accommodation and meeting rooms. The OTC will greatly support our high performance Aerial Skiing athletes into the future.

Following the success of Snowboard Halfpipe at the 2018 Olympic Winter Games, we are in discussion with Mt Buller for the development of a Halfpipe Project. This would see Olympic bronze medallist, Scott James to be actively involved in more discussions.

O’Brien Group Arena

The O’Brien Group Arena (OBGA) remains an exceptional headquarters for the OWIA’s Administration Office. It also continues to provide world class events and in a fitting finale to Australia’s Olympic Winter campaign, the Australian Olympic Team was welcomed home and congratulated in a ceremony on ice. We are most grateful for the outstanding coordination we receive from the management and staff of the OBGA.

Partners, Sponsors and Suppliers

The success of our athletes and programs during the past year could not be achieved without the ongoing vital and valuable support of our partners, sponsors and suppliers. I would personally like to thank John Coates AC and members of the Australian Olympic Committee (AOC) for their ongoing guidance and financial support. I thank the AOC team staff who worked tirelessly to plan and operate the 2018 Olympic Winter Games team. We look forward to assisting the AOC wherever possible through the 2018-2022 quadrennium. We also acknowledge the outstanding role undertaken by Board member, Ian Chesterman as the Olympic Winter Games Team Chef de Mission.

Sport Australia (SA) and the Australian Institute of Sport (AIS) makes such an important contribution to winter sports’ continued success as the principal funding partner for the operation of Sport Programs, infrastructure projects and the provision of world class resources and athlete support services.
The State Institutes play an enduring role, providing essential athlete performance support services and operating underpinning programs. The Victorian Institute of Sport (VIS) is a long-term partner and home of the Aerial Skiing program and the cooperation and outstanding day-to-day operation with Anne Marie Harrsion and the team are greatly appreciated by the OWIA. The close partnership with New South Wales Institute of Sport (NSWIS) has seen the effective operation of multi-medal winning programs in Snowboard Cross, Park and Pipe, and Mogul Skiing and we are most grateful to NSWIS CEO Kevim Thompson and his staff for their continued commitment to the NSWIS Winter Sports Program and talent pipeline.

OWIA athletes and staff are ever proud to wear Karbon clothing, the official race and outerwear supplier of the OWIA, and use XTM gloves and accessories. All uniform and product supplies are of excellent quality and both Karbon and XTM work closely with the athletes and coaches in technical product research and development.

I thank Geoff Lipshut and the administration, coaching and service staff for their excellent efforts during the 2017 – 2018 season and congratulate all on the successful PyeongChang 2018 campaign. Finally, and most importantly, I thank the athletes for their dedication, hard work and leadership. I wish all the athletes the best of luck for the upcoming season and 2019 World Championships and years ahead leading to Beijing 2022.

SPORT MEDICINE & ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES WORKING GROUP

Dr Peter Braun
Chief Medical Officer
Ashley Merkur
Medical Services & Rehabilitation Manager

The OWIA Sports Medicine & Athlete Support Services Working Group (SMASS WG) has continued in its role of delivering best practice sports medicine services to support OWIA contracted athletes. Led by Dr Peter Braun, OWIA Chief Medical Officer, the SMASS WG meets weekly via teleconference or in person, to discuss specific needs on a case-by-case basis, facilitating quality athlete welfare. Direct servicing of the athletes is delivered by internal staff supported by a network of external practitioners.

Key areas of focus for the SMASS WG have continued to include:

Athlete Injury Management and Rehabilitation

A strong focus on OWIA and SSA-Para athlete management has been maintained. Support continues to be provided on-demand and following our weekly meetings for other injury and illness episodes throughout the year. This support was extended in the lead up to PyeongChang 2018 Olympic Winter Games, to support Olympic initiatives including Skeleton, Cross Country Skiing and additional coverage for Mogul Skiing to help facilitate Olympic qualification and preparation.

Four athletes returned to snow in the 2017-18 season following significant injury management and rehabilitation efforts.

During the 2017-18 international season, and prior to the Olympic Games, three athletes sustained injuries typically considered to be season ending, but through careful management were able to return to participate at the OWG prior to returning home for further surgical intervention.

Key staff involved in this area are:

- Dr Peter Braun, OWIA CMO
- Ashley Merkur, Medical Services & Rehabilitation Manager
- Thomas Hammond, Psychologist
- Barbara Meyer, Sport Psychologist
- Alison Miles, Sports Dietitian
- Siobhan Crawshay, Sports Dietitian
- Will Morgan, Strength and Conditioning Coach
- Dr Greg Harris, OWIA Sport & Exercise Physician

Sports Medicine Network

The Sports Medicine Network has continued to evolve. The network contains a broad spectrum of winter sport-interested physisos who are based both in Australia and internationally, along with a growing number of sports physicians joining the network. Membership numbers are increasing, more coverage assignments have been offered each year of this quad, a greater capacity for individual feedback and mentoring opportunities is in place, and professional development workshops have been hosted by presenters with outstanding credentials in both NSW and Victoria, along with an annual conference.

Streamlining of the application, contract and documentation process has continued to be refined and overall the group continues to be harmonious and transparent.
SPORT MEDICINE & ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES WORKING GROUP (CONT’D)

Sports Medicine Coverage

A total of 23 physiotherapy network members undertook assignments over the duration of the 2017-18 international season, with 976 coverage days by travelling physiotherapists between October-March, a 25% increase on 2016-17. Two doctors were utilised during the 2017-18 international competition season, and one in the domestic season. Coverage to OWIA and SSA-Para programs included short track, aerial skiing, mogul skiing, snowboard cross, ski cross, park & pipe, para alpine, para snowboard cross, as well as NSWIS mogul skiing, skeleton and cross country.

Special coverage initiatives were created for four key athletes, including two major return to sport camps post-ACL revision, and two individual, tailored coverage assignments for Olympic medal calibre athletes.

Preparation for assignments, including remote support whilst away, was again delivered to physios by the SMASS WG.

Olympic Team

The medical team appointed to support the 2018 Australian Olympic Team in PyeongChang was its largest ever, comprising of:

• Dr Peter Braun, Medical Director
• Ashley Merkur, Medical & Physiotherapy Services Manager
• 1 additional Team Doctor
• 2 Sport Psychologists
• 8 Physiotherapists
• 3 Dietitians
• 1 Strength & Conditioning Coach

The SMASS WG met regularly throughout the 2017-18 to lead and execute the planning and preparation of the medical servicing for the Olympic Team. Key focus areas included:

• Screenings (medical, musculoskeletal, psychological, dietary and dental) to anticipate and plan for individual athlete requirements
• Concussion baseline testing

• Procurement of Olympic Team medical supplies and equipment
• Planning, bump-in and bump-out of Olympic Team medical service areas
• Workshops and practical skills training of Olympic Team medical staff
• Isolation planning
• Insurance and evacuation planning
• Medical Team IT infrastructure including a Medical Manual
AERIAL SKIING

Lydia Lassila 20th place | David Morris 10th place | Laura Peel 5th place | Danielle Scott 12th place | Samantha Wells 23rd place

2017-18 Season Overview

During the 2017-18 international season three members of the Australian Aerial Skiing Team, the Flying Kangaroos, achieved podium performances.

Laura Peel was the best placed Australian at the 2018 Olympic Winter Games in PyeongChang, with a top five performance, coming off two podiums in Lake Placid.

Lake Placid was a great event for the aerial skiers, as Lydia Lassila achieved a gold and silver medal performance in the double World Cup event and Laura Peel was on the podium in third place in both events. Danielle Scott secured gold and her best performance for the season, at the 2022 Olympic Winter Games site in Beijing.

Lydia, Danielle and Laura finished the World Cup season in fifth, sixth and seventh respectively.

Olympic Champion and bronze medalist Lydia announced her retirement after what was her fifth Olympic Winter Games in PyeongChang. Olympic silver medalist David Morris also announced his retirement from Aerial Skiing.

2017-18 Season Overview

Greta made a successful return to World Cup competition in early December post ACL revision. Greta lined up in two Downhill events, as well as a Super G, at the Lake Louise World Cup in Canada, successfully completing all six of her runs.

Greta opened her Olympic campaign with a 31st place finish in the women's Super G and unfortunately recorded a DNF in her best Olympic event, the Combined, after missing a gate.

Greta recorded the best ever Downhill result by an Australian woman, finishing in 20th place at JeongSeong Alpine Centre.

500m 21st place, 1000m 22nd place

2017-18 Season Overview

Daniel Greig represented Australian for the second time at the 2018 PyeongChang Olympic Winter Games. Daniel equalled his result at the 2014 Sochi Olympic Winter Games with a 22nd finish in the 1000m at PyeongChang. Daniel was able to back up this performance with an excellent skate in the 500m, dropping 18 places to secure a 21st finish.

The highlight of Daniel’s season was a gold medal performance and an Australian record time in the men’s 1000m Division B event at the Salt Lake City World Cup.

He sped to the top place on the podium in a time of 1:08.26; which was 0.45 seconds faster than his own previous national record set prior to Sochi in January 2013.

Message from the Australian Olympic Committee

We should all be very proud of the young team that represented Australia so wonderfully at the Olympic Winter Games in PyeongChang, South Korea earlier this year.

Not only did they equal our previous best medal tally of three (two silver, one bronze) but the future looks incredibly bright with Matt Graham (moguls), Jarryd Hughes (snowboard cross) and Scotty James (halfpipe) all first time Olympic medallists.

This represents a changing of the guard for our winter team with several other young athletes achieving top six finishes. Ian Chesterman deserves the many accolades he received as Chef de Mission. His impressive style of leadership carried over into the team itself.

They conducted themselves faultlessly in competition and away from it as ambassadors for Australia and Australian sport.

Geoff Henke and the team from the Olympic Winter Institute of Australia (OWIA) also deserve recognition for their work in bringing so many of our winter athletes to a competitive level that bodes well for the future.

Our hosts in PyeongChang conducted an excellent Games with competition venues of a very high standard, an efficient games operation and a welcoming and enthusiastic backdrop.

Not only did the Korean people embrace the events themselves, they embraced the Olympic principle of promoting a peaceful society, no better illustrated than the two Koreas marching under the one flag and competing as one in the Women’s Ice Hockey competition.

In describing PyeongChang as the “games of new horizons”, IOC President Thomas Bach noted the greater role Olympism brought to the Korean peninsula.

I believe we have entered a new period of growth and diversity for Olympic Competition and a heightened recognition within the community that Olympism has an enormous contribution to make to Australia’s future as we head towards our 2022 Olympic Campaign to Beijing.

Message from Sport Australia

It has been a watershed year for the Australian Sports Commission. We’ve launched a new public-facing brand - Sport Australia – with a renewed vision for Australia to be the world’s most active sporting nation, known for its integrity, sporting success and world-leading sports industry.

This aligns with the Australian Government’s long-term vision for sport in this country, outlined in Sport 2030, released in August 2018 by Minister for Sport Bridget McKenzie. Sport Australia will be central to delivering the priorities outlined in this national sport plan.

At the fundamental level, Sport Australia’s focus will be on getting Australians moving through sport and, more broadly, physical activity. We want to inspire and activating people across every age, race, gender, cultural background and physical ability. We will continue to build partnerships in the health and education sectors to ensure physical activity is a national priority.

We need to ensure sporting organisations are equipped to make the most of a renewed interest in physical activity, and so we will continue working with sports to improve the workforce capability, governance and partnerships. We want to help sports innovate, connect with existing and new participants in the digital era and provide products that meet current expectations.

The AIS is redefining its role too, leading a united and collaborative high performance system for Australian sport. Success will be measured by Australians consistently winning medals at major international events, but also in the national pride and inspiration generated by our athletes.

Working in partnerships, the AIS will be focused on doing the big system-level things on the frontiers of ethical sporting performance that no other body is naturally positioned to do.

The AIS has launched a new Athlete Wellbeing and Engagement team, focused on supporting athletes to transition through their sporting careers and connect with their communities. We want sporting champions to be positive influences.

Working in partnerships, the AIS will be focused on doing the big system-level things on the frontiers of ethical sporting performance that no other body is naturally positioned to do.

Australia enjoyed genuine sporting success in 2017-18. In challenging times, the Gold Coast Commonwealth Games helped restore Australia’s faith in our sports and athletes.

Positions on the podium are wonderful to celebrate, but the narrative is incomplete without humility, generosity of spirit, confidence in what our athletes stand for and how they carry themselves. At the Gold Coast Games, we saw the very best in our athletes, and this display of spirit and integrity is sure to give them the best start to their preparation for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

We also had some outstanding performances at the PyeongChang Winter Olympic and Paralympic Games. Australia equalled its most successful Winter Olympics haul of three medals in PyeongChang, two silvers and one bronze medal matching the result in Sochi 2014. It was also our best result at a Paralympic Winter Games in 16 years.

Sport integrity has justifiably gained additional focus in the past year, and is a very important priority for Sport Australia and for Australian sport more generally. We, and everyone involved in sport, owe it to the athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, fans and the public at large to ensure that Australian sport is fair and clean, and is seen to be fair and clean.

We thank all of our partners – including athletes, coaches, board members and administrators – for your effort and contribution to Australian sport, and your enthusiasm for building a more active Australia. We look forward to continued success and progress together.

The Company had 20 employees during the year ended 30 June 2018 (2017: 15 employees).
2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of preparation

In the Directors' opinion, the Company is not a reporting entity because there are no users dependent on such information as contained in general purpose financial reports.

This special purpose financial report has been prepared for distribution to the members of the Company as well as to the Australian Olympic Committee for internal management information purposes and to comply with the Company's constitution and the Corporations Act 2001. The accounting policies used in the preparation of this report, as described below, are in the opinion of the directors, appropriate to meet these needs.

Accordingly, the directors have prepared the financial report that complies with the measurement and recognition requirements of Australian Accounting Standards, which include the measurement and recognition requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards and other professional reporting requirements with the exception of the disclosure requirements of the following:

- AASB 7: Financial Instruments: Disclosures
- AASB112: Income Taxes
- AASB116: Property, Plant & Equipment
- AASB 117: Leases
- AASB 118: Revenue
- AASB 119: Employee Benefits
- AASB 124: Related Party Disclosures
- AASB 132: Financial Instruments: Presentation
- AASB 137: Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

The financial report is prepared on a historical cost basis. Unless otherwise stated, the accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous year. Comparative information is reclassified where appropriate to enhance comparability.
New Accounting Standards and Interpretations

(i) Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued but not yet effective

Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations that have recently been issued or amended but are not yet effective and have not been adopted by OWIA for the annual reporting period ending 30 June 2018 are outlined in the table below:

</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>AASB 1058 and AASB 15</td>
<td>In December 2016, the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) issued AASB 1058 Income of Not-for-Profit Entities that may change when certain types of income are recognised by Not-for-Profit (NFP) entities. At the same time, the AASB also issued AASB 2016-7 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Deferral of AASB 15 for Not-for-Profit Entities so that the effective date of AASB 15 for NFP entities will coincide with the 1 January 2019 effective date of these new requirements. Earlier application of the new requirements is permitted provided that the NFP entity applies both AASB 15 and AASB 1058 to the same period. The new requirements will defer income recognition in some circumstances for NFP entities, particularly where there is a performance obligation (as defined in the new Implementation Guidance on AASB 15) or any other liability. In addition, certain components in an arrangement, such as donations, may be separated from other types of income and recognised immediately. AASB 1058 also expands the circumstances in which NFP entities are required to recognise income for goods and services received for consideration that is significantly less than the fair value of the asset principally to enable the entity to further its objectives (discounted goods and services), including for example, peppercorn leases On transition NFP entities will be required to apply AASB 1058 and AASB 15 using one of the two methods: 1. Full retrospective approach: retrospectively to each prior reporting period presented; or 2. Modified retrospective approach: retrospectively with the cumulative effect recognised as an adjustment to the opening retained earnings at the date of the initial application (i.e. start of the reporting period in which the entity first applies the standard)</td>
<td>1 January 2018</td>
<td>In order to comply with AASB 1058 and AASB 15, OWIA will need to consider its funding arrangements and assess whether each arrangement is enforceable and includes promises that are sufficiently specific to qualify as performance obligations. This assessment will involve analysing arrangements at a level of detail previously not required.</td>

<td>The Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) has issued AASB 9 Financial Instruments, effective 1 January 2018. The new standard addresses classification and measurement of financial assets and liabilities, and provides a new set of hedge accounting rules and prescribes new principles on the impairment of financial assets.</td>
<td>1 January 2018</td>
<td>OWIA currently does not hold any financial instruments, and therefore the implementation of this accounting standard is irrelevant. There are minimal trade receivables and therefore we do not expect significant issues with this balance.</td>
<td>1 July 2018</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AASB 16</td>
<td>The Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) has issued AASB 16 Leases, effective 1 January 2019. The new standard requires lessees to recognise most leases on their balance sheets and requires additional disclosures.</td>
<td>1 January 2019</td>
<td>OWIA will adopt this standard from its application date of 1 July 2019 and are yet to finalise its assessment. As a result they have not quantified any impact.</td>

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(c) Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The significant accounting judgements or significant accounting estimates and assumptions impacting the financial statements are as disclosed below.

Estimation of useful lives of assets
The estimation of the useful lives of assets has been based on historical use and experience as well as lease terms (for certain office fittings). In addition, the condition of the assets is assessed at least once per year and considered against the remaining useful life. Adjustments to useful lives are made when considered necessary.

(d) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the Statement of Financial Position and Statement of Cash Flows comprise cash at bank and in hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

(e) Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables, which generally have 30-60 day terms, are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less an allowance for impairment.

Collectability of trade receivables is reviewed on an ongoing basis. Individual debts that are known to be uncollectible are written off when identified. An impairment provision is recognised when there is objective evidence that OWIA will not be able to collect the receivable. Financial difficulties of the debtor, default payments or debts more than 60 days overdue are considered possible evidence of impairment. The amount of the impairment loss is the receivable carrying amount compared to the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate.

(f) Inventory

At times inventory is received from suppliers as part of sponsorship agreements. Inventory received is measured at fair value (to approximate the lower of cost and net realisable value) and recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income when the inventory is distributed, at which time the carrying amount is recognised as an expense.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the normal course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.
Olympic Winter Institute of Australia Limited

Notes to the Financial Statements

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2018

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(g) Plant and equipment

Impairment
The carrying values of plant and equipment are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If any indication of impairment exists, an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount is calculated.

The recoverable amount of plant and equipment is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash inflows, recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs, unless the asset's value in use can be estimated to be close to its fair value.

An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use.

For plant and equipment, impairment losses are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

(h) Employee leave benefits

Wages, salaries and annual leave

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages, salaries and annual leave, when it is probable that settlement will be required and they are capable of being measured reliably.

Liabilities recognised in respect of employee benefits expected to be settled within 12 months, are measured at their nominal values using the remuneration rate expected to apply at the time of settlement.

Liabilities recognised in respect of employee benefits which are not expected to be settled within 12 months are measured as the present value of the estimated future cash outflows to be made by the Company in respect of services provided by employees up to reporting date.

Long service leave

The liability for long service leave is recognised and measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date. Consideration is given to expected future wage and salary levels, experience of employee departures, and periods of service. Expected future payments are discounted using market yields at the reporting date on national government bonds with terms to maturity and currencies that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash outflows.
Notes to the Financial Statements

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30 JUNE 2018

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

   (i) Trade and other payables

   Trade and other payables, including related party advances are carried at amortised cost and due to their short-term nature they are not discounted. Trade payables represent liabilities for goods and services provided to OWIA prior to the end of the financial year that are unpaid and arise when OWIA becomes obliged to make future payments in respect of the purchase of these goods and services. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 30 days of recognition. Other than credit card liabilities, trade and other payables are non-interest bearing.

   (j) Deferred revenue

   Income received in advance of the contract period is recorded as deferred income.

   (k) Revenue recognition

   Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the entity and the revenue can be reliably measured. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognised:

   Grant revenue

   Grant contributions are recorded as revenue at either the time of contribution or when the funds are utilised. Revenue is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of the grants are deemed to have been passed from the grantee and the risks and rewards of ownership are considered passed to the OWIA.

   Sponsorship revenue

   Sponsorship revenue is recognised when the sponsorship income can be reliably measured and control of the sponsorship revenue has been attained.

   Revenue received in the form of value in kind sponsorship is recognised to match expenditure on program services as incurred. Revenue received is measured at retail price at balance date.

   Interest

   Revenue is recognised when the Company’s right to receive payment is established.

   Contributions

   Under AASB 1004, contributions of assets are recognised immediately as revenue, at the fair value of the contribution, when:
   - the entity gains control of the contribution;
   - it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the entity; and
   - the amount of the contribution can be reliably measured.
Notes to the Financial Statements

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(l) Foreign currencies
Both the functional and presentation currency of OWIA is Australian dollars.

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded in the functional currency by applying the exchange rates ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rate of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. All exchange differences are taken to the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

The forward exchange contracts currently held by the OWIA have been recognised at fair value through profit or loss in accordance with IFRS 9 Financial Instruments.

(m) Borrowing costs
Borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur.

(n) Leases
Company as a lessee
Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense in the Statement of Comprehensive Income on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(o) Income tax
OWIA is classified as a sporting organisation under ITAA 1997 section 50-45 and is therefore exempt from income tax.

(p) Other taxes
Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST except:

- When the GST incurred on a purchase of goods and services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- Receivables and payables, which are stated with the amount of GST included.

The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the Statement of Financial Position.

Cash flows are included in the Statement of Cash Flows on a gross basis and the GST component of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities, which is recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is classified as part of operating cash flows.

Commitments and contingencies are disclosed net of the amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority.
Notes to the Financial Statements

(q) Value in kind
In kind goods and services shall be valued at the fair market value of the goods and services.

The fair market value is the equivalent best customer cash price of the same goods and services. Consistent with accounting standards the basis of accounting for non-monetary transactions is the same as for monetary transactions. The actual value in kind revenue recognised will match in dollar value to the cost charged to the OWIA program in lieu of out laying cash. In the year ended 30 June 2017, the OWIA received uniforms from VIK Karbon that were treated as value in kind. In the year ended 30 June 2018 (the Olympic year) Karbon was the official outerwear supplier to the Australian Olympic team resulting in no Karbon value in kind transaction with the OWIA.

In the year ended 30 June 2018, OWIA received via the Australian Olympic Committee four Toyota vehicles, three Kluger’s and one Rav to be utilised by the OWIA sport programs. These vehicles have been treated as value in kind in the current year financial statements.

Notes

(a) In June 2012, $2.0 million in funding was received from the Australian Sports Commission for two separate projects. The first of these projects is for $1.0 million towards construction of a 22 foot snowboard half pipe facility. The second project was for $1.0 million towards the cost of construction of a National Water Jump Training Facility.

In June 2013 an additional $2.5 million was received from the Australian Sports Commission for the National Water Jump Training Facility. A variation to the Sports Collaboration Agreement 2012/2013 outlines the extension and conditions of the proposed Water Jump facility funding.

In relation to the construction of the half pipe facility, discussions continue to take place with snow resorts in Victoria to identify the best possible location for the facility; taking into consideration the required planning permit process. In relation to the development of the water jump facility a feasibility study is currently taking place to complete the Winter Sports Freestyle Training facility at the Sleeman Sports Complex in Brisbane. The Pool, as constructed, is suitable without structural change, and the site can accommodate the ramps. The project that will greatly enhance the performance opportunities for Australia's winter sports athletes and provide an international standard facility while maintaining the pool for aquatic sports. Based on current discussions, OWIA will utilize the $4.5m in funding for the water jump facility.

OWIA remains committed to both projects and has invested in both infrastructure and planning costs for the water jump in the expectation that this project will commence.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board’s APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

Emphasis of Matter - Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 to the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.
Responsibilities of the Directors for the Financial Report

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and have determined that the basis of preparation described in Note 2 to the financial statements is appropriate to meet the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and is appropriate to meet the needs of the members. The directors’ responsibility also includes such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company’s internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors’ use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor’s report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor’s report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
• Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
